I, Kim Mitchell, will my nice 'Ford' Maverick to Dale. A real exciting night at the movies to Dave. My ability to play badminton to Don, and all my fun-filled nights at Bennett to anyone who wants them.

Kim Denise Mitchell —
President

I, Tammy Calkins, will a lifetime subscription of "Playgirl" to Crystal, Janelle and Andrea. My ability to drive without scaring anyone to DeDee and Merna. To Mr. Washburn, my ability to sit back and watch other people work on my projects. To my brother Tim, my ability to talk anyone into anything. And to Betty, DeDee and Mr. Washburn, my sincere thanks for their friendship and support . . .

Tammy Jo Calkins —
Vice President

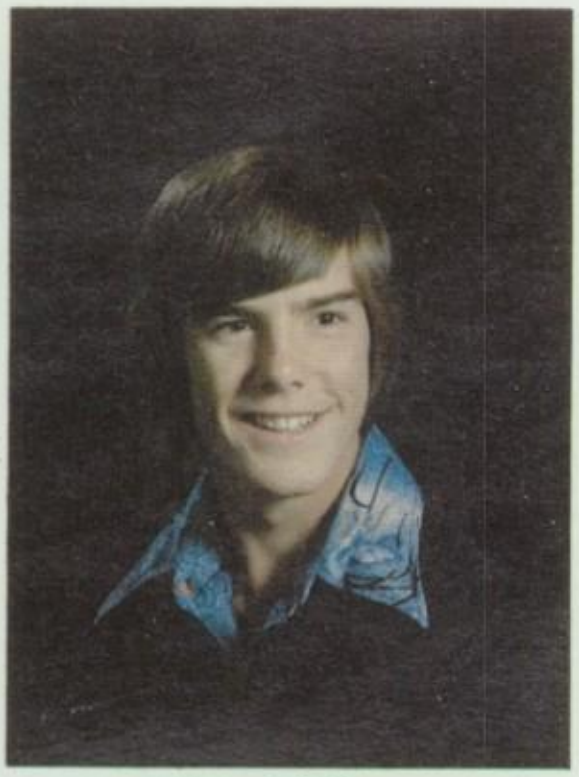
Class colors: Maroon and Silver
Class flower: Carnation
Class motto: May we always have the freedom to be ourselves.

Betty Jean Behrens —
Secretary

I, Betty Behrens, will my athletic ability to my sister, Barb, my 'Mighty Mouth' reputation to Roy Wailes, Mike Smallwood and Craig Piland, my ability of not getting into trouble in the halls to Jeff Bordner and Dave Siegman, my 12 years' experience at Bennett to Mr. Damon and Mr. Collins. To Tammy, DeDee, and Mr. (Tom Turkey) Washburn, my thanks for their friendship and time.

Diana Lynn Lowe —
Treasurer

I, Diane Lowe, being of typical mind, will my volleyball ability to Cindy Jackson, my calm and quiet nature to Miss Brady, my cheering voice to the Freshman pep club members, my ability to be a brat to Shorty, my singing ability to Karla Koenig, my ability to get off key to Barb Neely, my grades to my brother, Ron, and to all my dear friends, I wish you luck always.



Edward G. Bang

I, Jackie Eads, will my '65' Ford to Tommy Davis, my cowboy boots to Randy Ingraham, the Jr. High library to Mr. Brown, the next twelve years to my brother, Jamie, and the next four years to my sister, Brenda.

Jackie Eads

I, Kathy Givan, will my everlasting friendship to Celia, Kim, Gwen, Daina and Pam, my opportunity to get out of Bennett to future graduates. Also, I will my insanity to anyone claiming to be sane.

Kathryn Ann Givan

I, Celia Ingraham, being of sound mind and body (a little on the side of both), will my ability to stay short throughout high school to everyone taller than me. And my music abilities to Mr. Weiss. My ability to run away to Lynn Smythe. My ability to get into BIG trouble to anyone who wants it, my prayers to my angels, my love to my parents and everything else to my piddlin' pup.

Celia Marie Ingraham

I, DeDee Kaufman, will my junk food to Andrea and Crystal, a can of hair spray to Anita, my ability to kick my legs while shooting a basketball to my sister, Debbie, and my 133 lbs. to Craig Piland.

DeLonna M. Kaufman

Senior Prophecy

Excitement reigns as the party begins. It is 1992 and a hot Saturday night in Bennett. Dave Kissler and Don MacLennan are welcoming guests to their ranch which they have owned in partnership for 10 years. The Guests of Honor arrive from their successful world-wide musical tour. Kim Mitchell, lead singer of the "Seventy-Sevens," enters first, followed by Daina Wood, lead guitarist. Gwen Shoemaker, noted bass player, and Dan Smythe, world famous drummer, make up the group's rhythm section. The group's hairstylist, Kathy Givan, finishes Kim's hair while Tammy Calkins, costume designer, makes the final adjustments on the group's appearance.

All-Around Cowboy of 1992, Bob Siegman, rides in on a brown horse and attempts to put the Rodeo Queen, Donna Rowe, on the horse with him. He fails, but does succeed in falling off the horse and breaking the horse's neck. Ever-dedicated veterinarian, Dr. DeDee Kaufman, takes charge of the horse while Celia Ingraham, head nurse at Bennett General, gives Bob first aid.

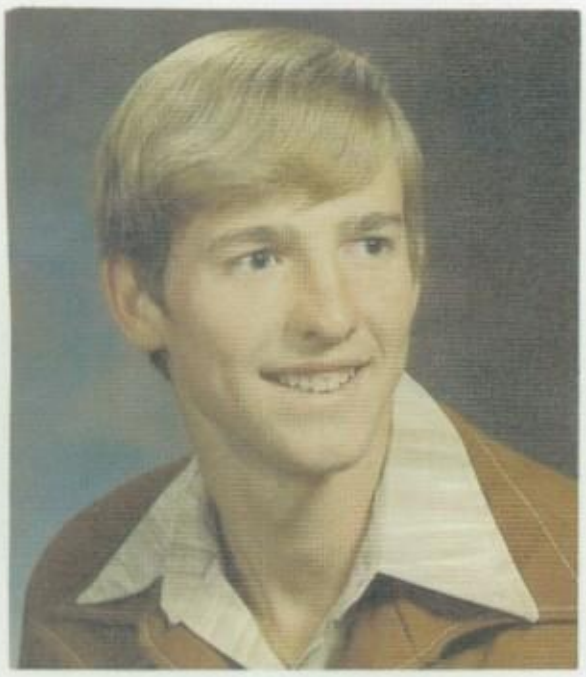
Noise comes from the roping arena where Ed Bang, National Stock Car Champion, and Dale Stone, head hood, rev up for the "big race." Mayor Jerry Weller starts the race and the noise soon drowns out Sue Tilton who is giving a speech on public orderliness. Dave Wilson begins shouting out to Jackie Eads, country and western singer, "Sing my favorite song, 'I Ain't Been Out Long,' for my partner in crime, Kelly Nutter."

As the party draws to a close, Ben Tupps finally arrives. Ben explains that his farm pigs were ill and he couldn't leave them until they looked better. Doug Wood says his only word of the evening, "Go," as he and Betty Behrens, famed woman athlete, begin arm wrestling. Diane Lowe collects the extra groceries and puts them in her car where she'll return them to her Bennett Supermarket, the largest in her chain.

The excitement dies and the party ends.

Best Wishes

Class of 78



David Daniel Kissler

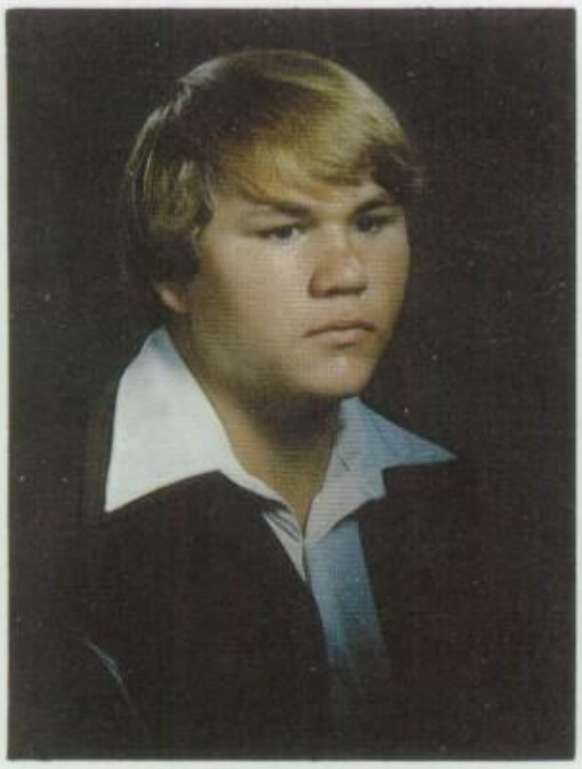
I, Dave Kissler, will Miss Gutru my 20-20 vision, to John Stowell, I give my ability to drive, to Kim and Gwen, I will 2 free tickets to see the "Wilderness Family," and to Joe Jackson the ability to make his car run (he'll need it).

I, Don MacLennan, will Barry Fendle my badminton championship trophy, and to Allen Page my ability to get to school on time.

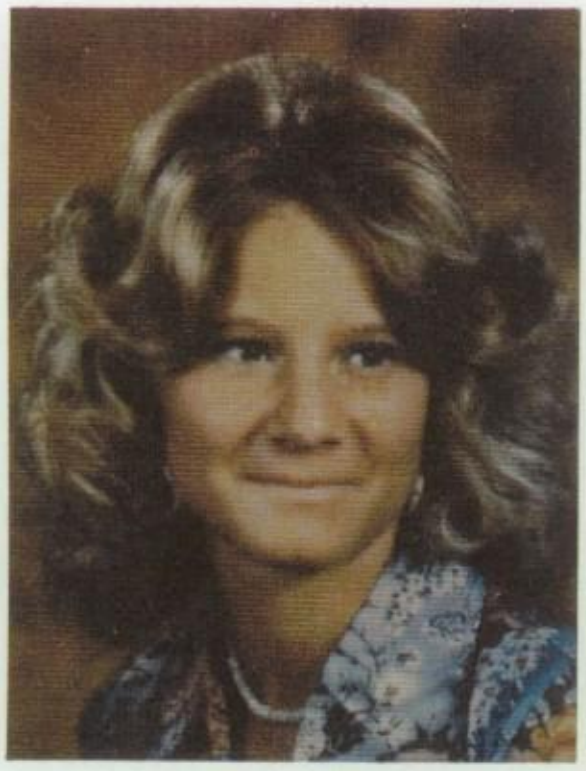
Don MacLennan

I, Donna Rowe, will Wanda and Sharon, the "Buddy" of the Year Award, my ability to work hard and have fun in F.F.A. to Jackie Becker, to Lila Hawkinson, the ability to cook anything in half the time it takes her, to Mike Smallwood the ability to make mistakes in band, and to my fellow classmates all the happiness they wish for.

I, Gwen Shoemaker, will my graduation night and the next four years to Mark. To Kathy, my ability to run red lights and Kim, to shoot the moon. To Daina, my ability to talk to anyone. To the guys of the senior class, my ability to have a great time.



Kelly O. Nutter



Donna Rowe

Gwen Shoemaker

Robert J. Siegman

I, Bob Siegman, will to my brother the ability to get along with Mrs. Heinzerling, "He'll need it." To my other brother, Dave, I hereby will the two bottles of wine, he carefully hid in the doghouse. My flashlight to Dave Kissler for finding stuck Jeeps in the creek. Kim and Gwen, I will my ability to stay sober, as well as my ability to drive Jeeps.

Daniel R. Smythe

FROM THE EDITORS

Diane Lowe

This year's annual is a very important one to us all. We work to make them better each year. Once we got started, we did very well. I hope we can look back at this year's annual and remember it with a smile. I would like to give a special thanks to the underclassmen and Mark Wolfinbarger. Thank you annual staff members for a good annual.

I don't know Diane, what do you think?

Well, Karla I'm not sure What do you think?

Karla Koenig

Working on an annual is a learning as well as a rewarding experience. This year's annual was a totally unique experience with a staff unlike any other.

To those staff members who gave up their time and energy, I give my sincerest thanks. Especially to the underclassmen who lent their creativity in such a positive manner, and to Diane for all her work.

An annual is a memory book and we tried to preserve the best memories of this school year. It is with great regret that any special thoughts should be left out. Hopefully all of yours are here.

Gail,

May you let God guide and direct your life. Your life will be richly Blessed.

Jesus says, I am the way, the truth and the light.

Love you
Mom.

Gail,

To the shortest best cutest girl in 7th grader hope everything turns out the way you plan.
